In today's world of constant communications it is almost inevitable that managers will at some time be required to speak to a group of people. Whether the group size is 2, 15 or 200 and the purpose a simple employee briefing, board presentation or significant sales pitch, the speaker must deliver a polished performance. Getting the content right is paramount but inspired delivery and being remembered are crucial.

Business Partners is delighted to have secured the services of Mr David Warrington to deliver a session on speaking to audiences that will make you realise just how much more you could make of your business presentations.

David trained in public speaking from the age of 8 (for reasons we will let him explain) and has been captivating audiences from 5 to 25,000 ever since!

This is a great opportunity to sample just how he can help you in this area of your business.
